

Have You Seen This!?

The Top Five Family Movies According to MyKidsTime.com

1 E.T. The Extra Terrestrial (1982)

A young boy Elliott discovers and befriends a gentle alien who becomes stranded on Earth, and brings him home. Elliott introduces E.T. to his brother and his little sister and the children decide to keep it secret. But when E.T. falls ill, the government arrives and Elliott has to decide how to help the alien. (Available for Rent on YouTube and Amazon Prime)

2 Back to the Future (1985)

Californian teen Marty McFly is taken back to the 1950s when an experiment by his eccentric scientist friend Doc goes wrong. Marty encounters young versions of his parents and must make sure that they fall in love or he won't exist in the future. Marty then has to return to his own time and save the life of Doc, all with the help of the time travelling DeLorean car. (Available to Stream on Hulu and Netflix)

3 Because of Winn-Dixie (2005)

India Opal (known as Opal) has just moved to a new town with her father who is a preacher. Her mother left when she was a baby. Opal is lonely and misses her old friends, and she ends up rescuing a dog she names Winn-Dixie, after the store where she found him. With Winn-Dixie's help, Opal starts to make new friends and even begins mending her relationship with her father. (Available to Stream on Disney+)

4 Mrs. Doubtfire (1993)

Divorced father Daniel Hillard hatches an elaborate plan with the help of his creative brother Frank to dress as an older woman and convince his ex-wife, Miranda, to hire him as a nanny. "Mrs. Doubtfire" wins over the children and helps Daniel become a better parent. (Available to Stream on Hulu and Disney+)

5 Jumanji (1995)

Siblings Peter and Judy find a curious, jungle-themed game called Jumanji in the attic of an old mansion. When they start playing, they free Alan Parrish (played by Robin Williams) who has been stuck in the game for decades. If they win Jumanji, the kids can free Alan for good but that means braving all sorts of adventures including giant bugs and stampeding rhinos! (Available to Rent on Amazon Prime or iTunes)